

1. Several firms wants to make advanced biofuels using bacteria.
2. Whales have often been finding in busy shipping lanes.
3. The most libraries have been increasing the digital content in their catalogs.
4. People use their browser much more that other programs.
5. A lot of people with limited skills have been unemployed for long time.
6. New Yorkers can be easily identifying by their accents.
7. Cotton production has come to California more than a century ago.
8. Drones are capable to flying faster and higher than ever before.
9. For most people which speak English, it is their second language.
10. A water crisis, causing by a severe drought, is threatening America's south-west.