

Put ONE word in each gap in the sentences below.

1. Ms Nakagawa was _____ for the excellent work she had done.

praised / promoted / recommended / rewarded

2. _____ accordance with the owner's wishes, the management was restructured.

In

3. These excellent _____ will permit us to expand our overseas operations.

figures / results

4. Share prices have fallen _____ a result of the bad forecast.

as

5. The lack of funding forced the association to _____ back on its activities.

cut

6. _____ she has only recently arrived, Ms Tanaka has shown that she is invaluable.

Although / Even though / Though

7. _____ of the severe weather conditions, workers were told to go home.

Because

8. We _____ that you are not entitled to a full refund.

regret / (believe, feel, consider ...)

9. Free overnight accommodation will be provided to _____ travelers for the delay.

compensate ('all', 'any' etc are acceptable, but usually: 'to compensate all ...')

10. The hotel is always fully _____ during the peak season.

booked

11. Stay in one of the most luxurious resorts _____ the coast.

on

12. The company will be _____ the information on its website.

displaying / posting / publishing / putting

13. I ordered these items over three weeks _____.

ago

14. Should you _____ to contact us, you can call toll-free.

desire / need / want / wish

15. The consignment we were expecting has not _____ arrived.

yet

16. Shipment of the goods will only take place after the _____ has been paid in full.

bill / invoice / sum

17. Traffic problems were _____ to the fact that yesterday was a public holiday.

due

18. The city will have to _____ taxes in order to maintain its services.
increase / raise

19. Mr Gonzales will be unable to _____ the meeting as he is on sick leave.
attend

20. New equipment will be installed in the boardroom _____ of tomorrow.
as