

FOOD AND SHOPPING

1. Put the words below in the correct sentences.

bitter	checkout	empty
fresh	lettuce	trolley

- a) If you _____ the freezer, we'll defrost it overnight.
- b) It is recommended to eat a mixture of frozen, canned and _____ vegetables.
- c) You'll find the _____ for the salad in the bottom of the fridge.
- d) Supermarkets provide shoppers with a basket and/or a _____ for their purchases.
- e) I'm not sure if I like this coffee. It has a _____ taste.
- f) The _____ is the area in a supermarket where you pay.

2. Complete the conversation with ten words from the list. Use each word only once.

afford	assistant	average
broke	cheap	display
easily	fit	luxury
nice	sale	size
suit	tight	unusual

Alina) That's a _____ pair of shoes. I think the style would _____ me. What do you think?

Bob) I thought you said you were _____. OK, so there's a _____ on, but they're still not _____ are they?

Alina) Hey, everybody should be able to _____ a little _____ from time to time. I probably spend less than the _____ person on clothes.

Bob) Go on then. See if the _____ has got your _____.

.

HOTELS AND ACCOMMODATION

1. Put the words below in the correct sentences.

available	chambermaid	extra
guest	peak	rates

- a) When you want to book a hotel room, occasionally there are none _____.
- b) It's especially difficult to find a room during the _____ season.
- c) Out-of-season, the _____ are usually lower.
- d) It's the job of a _____ to make sure that the rooms are clean.
- e) A good hotel will always try to make the _____ feel at home.
- f) You can ask for something _____, such as an additional bed for a small child.

2. Complete the conversation with ten words from the list. Use each word only once.

ad	afraid	availabilities
booked	brochure	enquire
fix	included	offer
propose	quiet	refund
suitable	view	youngster

Alan) Hi, I'm phoning about your _____ on internet. I'd like to _____ about renting a holiday villa.

Becky) All our villas are fully _____ for the month of August, I'm _____, but there are still a few _____ in July.

Alan) OK, so three important things ... do we get a good _____ of the sea, is it _____, and _____ for a family of five, with a _____ who is only two years old?

Becky) No problem. Prices vary a little, but we can _____ you a discount if you take it for the whole month.

ANSWERS

FOOD AND SHOPPING

1.

- a) If you empty the freezer, we'll defrost it overnight.
- b) It is recommended to eat a mixture of frozen, canned and fresh vegetables.
- c) You'll find the lettuce for the salad in the bottom of the fridge.
- d) Supermarkets provide shoppers with a basket and/or a trolley for their purchases.
- e) I'm not sure if I like this coffee. It has a bitter taste.
- f) The checkout is the area in a supermarket where you pay.

2.

Alina) That's a nice pair of shoes. I think the style would suit me. What do you think?

Bob) I thought you said you were broke. OK, so there's a sale on, but they're still not cheap are they?

Alina) Hey, everybody should be able to afford a little luxury from time to time. I probably spend less than the average person on clothes.

Bob) Go on then. See if the assistant has got your size.

HOTELS AND ACCOMMODATION

1.

- a) When you want to book a hotel room, occasionally there are none available.
- b) It's especially difficult to find a room during the peak season.
- c) Out-of-season, the rates are usually lower.
- d) It's the job of a chambermaid to make sure that the rooms are clean.
- e) A good hotel will always try to make the guest feel at home.
- f) You can ask for something extra, such as an additional bed for a small child.

2.

Alan) Hi, I'm phoning about your ad on internet. I'd like to enquire about renting a holiday villa.

Becky) All our villas are fully booked for the month of August, I'm afraid, but there are still a few availabilities in July.

Alan) OK, so three important things ... do we get a good view of the sea, is it quiet, and suitable for a family of five, with a youngster who is only two years old?

Becky) No problem. Prices vary a little, but we can offer you a discount if you take it for the whole month.